Select Poetry.

"DON'T STAY TOO LONG."

A look of yearning tenderness

Beneath her lashes lies,

And hope and love unutterable

Are shadowed in her eyes.

As in some deep untroubled stream

Are clouds and summer skies.

She passed to early womanhood,

From dreamy, sweet girlhood,

And crossed the rosy threshold but

To find herself a wife;

Oh! gently should he lead her steps

Along the path of life!

And as she clasped her small white hands

Upon his arm so strong,

How often, like a summer sigh,

Or a sweet pleading song,

She whispers, with a parting kiss,

"Beloved one, don't stay long."

It's almost always on her lips,

Her gentlest parting word,

Sweet as the fragrance from rose leaves

When by soft zephyrs stirred,

And lingering in the melody

Like song of summer birds.

And in his heart they nestle warm,

When other scenes amid;

He stays not till the weary grows,

And her fond eyes are hid

In tears which lie in bitterness

Beneath each veiling lid.

And oh, how many hearts are kept

By that love-uttering song!

There's scarcely one who on life's waves

Is swiftly borne along,

But what has heard from some dear lips

Those sweet words, "Don't stay long."

FIRST AND SECOND LOVE.

I was very happy when Herbert Clare told me that he loved me, and asked me to be his wife—very happy as I dreamed of the future before us; for I loved him, and thought that nothing but death could change either of us. He was so handsome, so graceful, so talented, so witty, and so unaffected in his manners; and I was so plain, so retiring, so unattractive, that I often wondered how he came to love me. He was the first beau I had ever had, the first man who had ever kissed me since my father had been laid away to rest in the graveyard; and I invested him with almost heavenly attributes, and worshipped him as the heathens in their blindness worship their idols.

I was living with my aunt; for I was an orphan and a dependent. My life had been a very quiet and uneventful one; for Marston was an inland village, some distance from either railroad or stage route.

Herbert Clare had come up from the city to visit his uncle, who lived in the large white house just opposite the brick church. He had not been well for months and his physician had recommended country air and country living; and thus it was he had come to honor our quiet little village with his presence.

The first time I met him was at the singing school. He came with his cousin, Nettie Clare. She and I had always been intimate friends; and before the evening was over Herbert and I were chatting as pleasantly as old acquaintances.

From this evening we were much together. He brought me books and flowers, and taught me to play on the guitar.

"My mother had left me," and I was very happy—oh! so happy. Scarcely two months had gone by before he told me how much he loved me, and asked me to be his wife. We were sitting on the porch at the time—the fragrance of the honeysuckle floating around us; the pale sweet moon looking down upon us; and my heart beat very fast as I laid my hand in his and promised to be his wife. He folded me to his bosom, and kissed me over and over again; and that night I could not sleep for the thoughts that kept tripping through my excited brain.

When September came, he left me.

Oh! I can never forget that night we parted. I thought my heart would break.

I was young then—only sixteen—and it seemed to me as if I could not let him go.

But he promised to write very often; and after kissing me half a dozen times, he gently put me from him, and sprang into the wagon that was waiting for him, and was driven off. I threw myself upon the sofa, and wept violently. My aunt was a kind, considerate woman, and left me to myself, knowing full well that such violent grief as I manifested must soon expend itself. And so it did. For half an hour, perhaps, I lay there sobbing violently.

Then I arose and bathed my swollen eyes in cold water, and went to my accustomed duties. I did not miss Herbert as much as I supposed I should. To be sure, I

The discussion on negro eligibility in the Georgia Legislature was closed with a speech from Turner, a negro. On the vote being taken negroes were declared ineligible by a vote of 80 to 23. Twenty-five were unseated and four remain, who claim to be white men. Their case will be investigated on Thursday. A Washington letter says:

The action of the Georgia House of Delegates in excluding negroes from that body on the ground of ineligibility, has produced no surprise here, as it was known in advance that the movement would be made under the dictation of the Radical committee of Congressmen, who consider that such action would be a trump card in the Northern canvass, as showing the Radical party was not favorable to negro equality. It required a great deal of backing and flitting before the carpet-bag-gers of Georgia could be induced to move in the matter, as they professed to see in it nothing but their own political overthrow. In resisting the proposition they urged that the negroes would easily understand that they were being used merely as tools and would turn from them in disgust and join the Democracy. This loss, however, was regarded insignificant when compared to the great advantage arising to the Radical party in the North to be able to demonstrate to the masses that the Democratic speakers lied when they charged their opponents with favoring negro equality. This is the key to the action of the Georgia Legislature, and the Radical wire-workers are chuckling over it as one of the smartest tricks of the canvass. How will their colored allies relish it?

A STREAK OF LUCK.—We have heard tell of streaks of luck, but, verily, the most pre-eminently fortunate one that over-reached our knowledge struck our friend and respected townsman, Miles K. Bell, Esq., yesterday. He was rummaging over some old family relics in the garret of his residence on Main street, when he found, upon opening an old fashioned hair trunk, the handsome and princely sum of $300-000. Words are inadequate to express the great delight of the finder on finding himself so suddenly and almost ineredulously transferred from comparative poverty to the possession of wealth, and the many blessings attendant thereon.—Norfolk, W. A. Day Book, Sept. 8.

THE PEACH CROPS IN THE WEST.—While the people on the Atlantic seaboard are suffering from a dearth of this delicious fruit, the Cincinnati papers report that the peach crop in that locality was never larger. The prices however, are high, ranging from $2.50 to $4 per bushel.
This is caused by the large demand from other quarters. From 500 to 1,000 boxes are leaving Cincinnati daily for New York city, and from three to five cars laden with peaches are dispatched every day from the towns on the Little Miami railroad. Eastern dealers, it is stated, are buying up and shipping all the best fruit in southwestern Ohio.

The Chinese hold the office of school teacher to be the highest in the world.
This is right. The office of teacher is one of the highest and gravest responsibility, and ought to be respected as such.
All the people are educated in China, and the instruction of youth is universal.

Elias D. Johnson, a repentant carpetbagger of North Carolina, has come out for Seymour.

CASH! CASH!!
IS NOW THE ORDER OF THE DAY.

BUSINESS of all kinds is being put on a Cash basis, and it is right and proper that it should be.
If a farmer sells his wheat, corn, oats, or hay, it is for cash.
If he sells his beef, pork, or potatoes, it is for cash.
If he sells his peaches, it must be for cash.
Mercantile credits are now reduced to thirty days, which is equivalent to cash; for thirty days is no recommendation at all, to a man who does a credit business.
At the beginning of every month the "Monthly Statement" is sent out to all dealers, and the amounts due are put on the foot of that Statement, and must be promptly paid, or the delinquent's credit suffers. It is evident, therefore, that merchants cannot do business satisfactory to themselves, and keep up their credit and their stock, if they continue to give the long credits heretofore extended to their customers.
Business, generally, is approaching more nearly a cash basis, and business men everywhere, will be compelled to conform to the general rule and practice. Consequently, the undersigned, will, on and after this date, SELL GOODS FOR CASH ONLY, OR ITS EQUIVALENT IN TRADE.
We have marked our Goods to the lowest possible figures, and are prepared to sell Great Bargains for Cash Only.
Try the effect of cash purchases, and note the sum saved by it.
We are offering Goods cheaper than ever offered before, because they will be sold for cash only.

SEWING MACHINES.
WILCOX & GIBBS'
TWISTED LOOP-STITCH
FAMILY SEWING MACHINES.
THE BEST FAMILY SEWING MACHINES IN THE WORLD.

OBVIOUS REASONS WHY THE
WILCOX & GIBBS

Family Sewing Machines
ARE BECOMING SO POPULAR:

FIRST, Because they make the "Twisted Loop-Stitch," which is the most Beautiful, Elastic, and Durable Stitch known.

SECOND, Because they are adapted to the Greatest Range of Work, and will use either Cotton, Silk, or Linen Thread successfully.

THIRD, Because they are Perfectly Simple in their Construction; and will Hem, Fell, Stitch, Bind, Cord, Tuck, Gather, and Embroider, in the most perfect manner.

FOURTH, Because they use but One Spool, and are found Competent when all others fail.

Read the following Statements of Facts and Recommendations of Individuals and of the Press in regard to the

WILCOX & GIBBS
Family Sewing Machines.

From the Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad.

ALTOONA, Pa. Sept. 14, 1865.

One of your Sewing Machines has been used in my family for several years. For simplicity and mechanical accuracy of construction, I have seen no Sewing Machine equal to it. The speed and correctness with which it does its work are admirable. It has given and continues to give us entire satisfaction.
ECHO LEWIS.

DOVER, Sept. 12th, 1865.

Measrs. Wilcox & Gibbs, Gentlemen.—Having had eighteen months' experience with your Family Sewing Machine, I take pleasure in saying that it has given perfect satisfaction. It has been the means of selling several in this locality.
D. F. BURTON.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, Jan. 29th 1859.—
"The simplicity and accuracy of its mechanism prevent its dropping stitches, to which many other machines are liable, and which has hindered brought the 'chain stitch' into disrepute. One cannot but admire the beauty and accuracy of its movements, and the entire absence of all noise, even when running at the rate of 2000 stitches and upward per minute. This alone must prove a great recommendation to it. Another merit is the good workmanship. The parts are made interchangeable, so that in the event of accident to the machine, any part can be replaced, at a trifling cost. It is, indeed, a 'mechanical wonder'—a household necessity!"

PHILADELPHIA PRESS, 1860.—"The unparalleled success which has attended the introduction of the Wilcox & Gibbs Sewing Machine is a sure guarantee of its merits."

TO THE PUBLIC.

INTERESTED parties having circulated reports in New Castle and adjoining counties, depreciating the character of Rhodes' Super Phosphate as a Fertilizer (in consequence of the recent reduction in price of same,) we beg leave to lay before our patrons and the public generally, the following letter from Messrs. Yarnall & Trimble, General Agents for this Standard Manure, in Philadelphia:

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 11, 1868, Mr. E. T. Evans, Middletown, Del.

Dear Sir:—Your favor of date is just to hand. We note, with surprise, that there prevails with you a rumor that Messrs. Potts & Klett have sold out to other parties. This is a falsehood made out of the "whole cloth." Messrs. Potts & Klett have not sold out; neither do they intend to do so. On the contrary, they have so increased their facilities for making the Rhodes Super Phosphate, that they are enabled to make it at less cost than any other manufacturers, and in consequence have been able to reduce the price and still furnish an article fully equal to their former High Standard, and at the same time, in a condition for drilling after any article of the kind in the market.

We cannot conceive how the report has been circulated in your neighborhood, or who the authors of it are. We suppose, however, it was originated by some interested party, who, perhaps, is not able to produce so good an article, even at a higher price. Please contradict the report flatly, and at all times, oblige Yours, truly,
YARNALL & TRIMBLE, General Agents for Rhodes' Manure.

YES.

"Yes!"—Oh! it is a kind reply, When flowing from the lips of dear Young beauty—in whose eyes we sigh
The one fond wish. What hope—what fear, Ere to your breast, with blushing face, She clings, to hide her sweet distress—Ere, and love's tenderest embrace, We hear her gently whisper—"yes!"
"Yes!"—in that word—if aught there can Of faithful joy on earth be found—"The breathless into the soul of man From virgin's lips—a holy sound!
And then—while each young heart with heart Rejoiceth—as he takes love's kiss, There's bound a tie no force may part—Their mutual spirits answer—"yes!"

Edict and Humor.

RELIGIOUS COURTSHIP.—A young gentleman happened to sit at church in a pew adjoining one in which a lady, for whom he had conceived a sudden and violent passion, and was desirous of entering into a partnership on the spot, but the place not suiting a formal declaration, the exigency of the case suggested the following plan: He politely handed his fair neighbor a bible, open, with a pin stuck in the following text (Second Epistle of John, fifth verse): "And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another." She returned it pointing to the second chapter of Ruth, verse tenth: "Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldst take knowledge of me, seeing that I am a stranger." He returned the book pointing to the thirteenth verse of the Third Epistle of John: "Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink, but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full." From the above interview a marriage took place the ensuing week.

A Western paper contains the following advertisement:
"Wants a situation, a practical printer, who is competent to take charge of any department in a printing and publishing house. Would accept a professorship in any of the academies. Has no objection to teach ornamental painting and penmanship, geometry, trigonometry, and many other sciences. Is particularly suited to act as a pastor to a small evangelical church or as a local preacher. He would have no objection to form a small but select class of interesting young ladies to instruct in the higher branches. To a dentist or chiropodist he would be invaluable, as he can do almost anything. Would cheerfully accept a position as bass or tenor singer in a choir. Would board with a family, if decidedly pious. For further particulars, inquire at Brown's Saloon."

Three wild mauls were recently captured by a young divine and brought into a Sunday School in New York, where they were generally questioned as follows:
"What is your name?"
"Dan," replied the untaught boy who was first interrogated.
"Oh, no, your name is Daniel; say it now."
"Daniel."
"Yes; well, Daniel take your seat."
"And what is your name?" was asked of number two.
"Sam," ejaculated the urchin.
"Oh, dear no, it is Samuel; you sit down, Samuel."
"Now let us hear what your name is, my bright little fellow?" said he turning to the third.
With a grin of self-satisfaction, and a shake of the head that would have done honor to Lord Burleigh, the young catechumen boldly replied, "Jinuel, your honor."

A skeptical young collegian confronted an old Quaker with the statement that he did not believe in the Bible. Said the Quaker:
"Does thee believe in France?"
"Yes, for though I have not seen it, I have seen others who have; besides there is plenty of corroborative proof that such a country does exist."
"Then thee will not believe anything thee nor others have not seen?"
"No, to be sure I won't."
"Did thee ever see thy own brains?"
"No."
"Ever see anybody that did?"
"No."
"Dost thee believe thee has any?"

A witness in court who had been cautioned to give a precise answer to every question, and not talk about what he might think the question meant, was interrogated as follows:
"You drive a wagon?"
"No, sir, I do not."
"Why, man, did you not tell my learned friend so this moment?"
"No, sir, I did not."
"Now, sir, I put it to you on your oath, do you not drive a wagon?"
"No, sir."
"What is your occupation, then?"
"I drive a horse, sir."

A resident in a certain village, having had sanded sugar sold to him, inserted in the local paper the following: "Notice.—I bought of a grocer in this village a quantity of sugar, from which I obtained one pound of sand. If the rasal who cheated me will send to my address seven pounds of good sugar, I will be satisfied; if not, I shall expose him." The following day nine even pound packages of sugar were left at his residence from as many different dealers, each supposing himself the one intended.

"Are you the mate?" said a passenger to the Irish Cook of a vessel. "No," answered Pat, "but I'm the boy that boils the mate."

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

AND Hooftland's German Tonic.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS Is composed of the purest juices (or, as they are medicinally termed Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from all alcoholic admixture of any kind.

Hooftland's German Tonic
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c. making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixtures, will use

Hooftland's German Bitters.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases: Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluctuating at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Headache or Dizziness, Breathless, Fluctuating at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Position, Dizziness of Vision, Drops or Weir before the Sight, Full Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is sure from his investigations and inquiries, possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

Hooftland's German Bitters,
AND Hooftland's German Tonic
PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Thirty-five years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed many cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhea, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver Stomach or Intestines.

Resulting from any cause whatever: prostration of the system, induced by severe labor, hardships, exposure, fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests properly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

Persons advanced in life and feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with its attendant ailments, will find in the use of this Bitters, or the Tonic, an elixir that will instill new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their debilitated frames, and give them health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.
It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of Marasmus without fail.

TESTIMONIALS.

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa. writes:

"Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find Hooftland's German Bitters to be a good tonic, useful in the diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system."
Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

Hon. James Thompson,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hooftland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON.

From Rev. J. H. Kennard, D. D.

Pastor of the Third Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson,—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the use of Dr.
Hooftland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD.

Eighty, below Coates St.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall,

Assistant Editor, Christian Chronicle, Philad.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hooftland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility, or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours, truly, E. D. FENDALL.

CAUTION.—See that the signature of C. M.
Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeit.
